Re: Financial Assistance

Enclosed you will find an application for financial assistance for South Central Regional Medical Center. Please complete all information requested and mail back to us within 15 days. Please be sure to include all of the requested documentation. Any application submitted without all supporting documentation will be denied. It is the responsibility of the patient or family to provide the hospital with any necessary information so eligibility can be determined.

In the State of Mississippi, a person under the age of 21, excluding emancipated minors who are married and/or self-supporting, is considered a minor and requires parent/legal guardian(s) financial information/signature on the application.

Financial applications are open to individuals incurring hospital bills which they cannot readily pay, without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, sex, age, handicap, or religious preference. Applications for emergency and medically necessary services may be submitted up to 240 days after the first post discharge statement. The applicant must be willing to apply for any and all assistance resources recommended by the hospital and accept assistance from these resources.

In order to provide a constant financial assistance policy, the below income guideline will be observed along with other valued information obtained on the application.

2019 FEDERAL POVERTY INCOME GUIDELINES
Number of household members: Yearly Gross Income

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
